

Coca-Cola Golden Spoon Awards-2015

The eighth edition of the Annual Coca Cola Golden Spoon Awards recognised excellence in food retailing and foodservice in India, through the presentation of multiple honours for the country's most progressive and innovative companies, brands and professionals associated in these fields.

The Coca Cola Golden Spoon Awards 2015 selection process involved inviting entries from the nation's leading foodservice and food & grocery retailers across multiple categories.

During the nomination process, contenders were asked to provide data relating to their performance for the calendar year 2014 across three main Parameters – retail expansion, business performance and the same store sale growth percentage. All submissions for Coca Cola Golden Spoon Awards 2015 were independently judged by a jury comprising, Amit Lohani, MD, Max Foods, Anuj Puri, Chairman & Country Head, JLL, Harish Bijoor, CEO, Harish Bijoor Consults Inc, Seema Chandra, Editor-Food, NDTV, Jyoti Bhasin, Country Manager, NFS and Amitabh Taneja, Chief Convenor, India Food Forum

Recognition for regional foreign food retail icons

The Coca Cola Golden Spoon Awards' evening also witnessed the presentation of a special segment of honours by Forum of Indian Food Importers (FIFI) for retailers specialising in foreign food and beverage categories. "The honours reflect a joint commitment by IMAGES Group and FIFI to develop the foreign food retail business in India through innovation and inspiration," said Amit Lohani, Convenor, FIFI. Five traditional retailers from across India who've created and nurtured consumption in the imported foods category through innovation and specialisation were the recipients of these accolades.
